

absolute ROCKS

Issue 21

March 2017

WHERE'S THE REVOLUTION?

Brad Walsh recently designed this 'People are People' t-shirt for Christian Siriano's runway. He took his inspiration from Depeche Mode's 10th UK hit single, all proceeds going to ACLU.

JUST CAN'T GET ENOUGH...DEPECHE MODE

Born in Essex in 1980, Depeche Mode's career now stands at 13 studio albums, 6 live albums, 10 compilation albums, 13 video albums, 53 singles and 70 music videos. A Global phenomenon, Depeche Mode have sold in excess of 100 million records worldwide. Their forthcoming LP 'Spirit' will be released on 17th March preceding their long awaited Global Spirit tour in May. They are also headlining the prestigious 6 Music Festival in Scotland this month.

ROSTER ALERT: DEPECHE MODE

Contact: mokhan@absolutegarments.com

'SOMETHING JUST LIKE THIS'

The Chainsmokers' surprise collaboration with Coldplay has soared to the top of this week's Official Trending Chart. In less than 48 hours it went from position 28 to number 2.

Coldplay have recently announced that they will be headlining the Global Citizen Festival in Hamburg this July. Music fans and activists alike will have to apply for one of the 9000 free tickets that will be available ...but not for long! Coldplay will also be kicking off their World 'Head Full of Dreams' Tour in Singapore at the end of March.

COLDPLAY

ROSTER ALERT: COLDPLAY

Contact: mokhan@absolutegarments.com

THIS ISSUE'S TOP SPRING LOOKS...

(our fave is in KISS!)

Winter is hopefully on its way out and everyone is looking forward to warmth, fun and no coats to hide our tees! We've been scouring the web to find some fresh looks and have gathered a few of our Spring favourites.

ROSTER ALERT: DAVID BOWIE, POLICE, KISS, LED ZEPPELIN

Contact: mokhan@absolutegarments.com

For band enquiries:

mokhan@absolutegarments.com