MEGADETH BOOTCAMP ANYONE??

So, you thought Bootcamp was one of those hideously rigorous body workout exercises to make you feel 'better'? Well, according to the MEGADETH Bootcamp, the only workout you'll feel is your ears listening to intimate performances from the band themselves!

This month, diehard fans had the opportunity to buy special weekend tickets for them to stay in Dave Mustain's private estate in California! Over the weekend, attendees got the opportunity to meet members of the band at a question-and-answer session, participate in guitar, bass and drum clinics, drink coffee from bassist David Ellefson's boutique coffee brand with Ellefson himself and go to a wine-tasting session with Mustaine. There was also time allotted for campfire stories with band members. This Bootcamp left their guests 'Sweating Bullets'...sorry, had to be done!

PUNK LEGENDS: THE DAMNED

Born in 1976 (the year of PUNK), The Damned have been responsible for the British Punk Rock movement along with The Clash and The Sex Pistols. As most punk bands at the time, they lived fast and died young. However, The Damned are still continuing to inspire and perform today as they are about to embark on an epic North American and European Tour this summer, finishing up at London's very own Camden Rock's festival on 3rd June.

We think these tees totally rock, vintage punk is the way forward...

SPECIALI-TEES!

We have been inspired by this year's t-shirt trend as it has taken on new looks, new shapes but always with rock n roll! We love these fresh styles... check out the latest corset tees, inspiration from luxury brand Balmain, 90's denim revival and cold shoulder torn tees. Whatever your style, there's always a band tee for you!

The Corset Tee

Gigi Hadid in recent Balmain AW17 Runway, inspired by 90's band tees, in particular Nirvana.

The 90s are so hot for SS17, but don't take your jackets off just yet, get some 90s hits on your back...very cool.

We love this torn Motorhead Tee, perfect for Festival Season!

ROSTER ALERT: AC/DC, Nirvana, Motorhead
